

Dear friends,

We are in the Jubilee Year of the Eucharistic Youth Movement Jubilee leading us to the centenary celebration of the EYM in Rome in August 2015.

As you know "Jubilee" comes from the Latin Jubilare, that is to say, "rejoice." A Jubilee year is a year of joy, a year of celebration, thanking the Lord for the gift he has given us. The theme of the Jubilee Year, and the meeting in Rome, comes from the Gospel of St. John, chap. 15, 11: "That my joy may be in you" and this theme makes eco to the words of the Pope who reminds us the "Joy of the Gospel".

As we promised, we want present each national team of EYM at our worldwide network. We need a nice team photo that represents you, yes, which represents you in this JOY to follow Christ!

Thank you to send it to: Lourdes Vázquez:
